

FAST FACTS ABOUT GUN VIOLENCE

On average, 306 people are shot every day across the country.

Over 111,000 are shot in America every year.

Pennsylvania suffers more than 1600 gun deaths every year, whether by homicide, suicide or unintentional shooting.

A police officer is fatally shot in Pennsylvania every six months, while an assault with a firearm against a police officer occurs approximately every two days.

In the last decade, 50% of Pennsylvania Police Officers killed in the line of duty were killed by long guns.

8TH

From 2012 to 2014, Pennsylvania ranked eighth for highest number of guns exported to other states and recovered in crimes, with a total of 5,844 such guns.

From January 2014 to June 2016, 12 children died and 22 were wounded in unintentional shootings in Pennsylvania.

In 2016, in PA, there were 1555 firearm deaths: 976 of which were suicides and 538 of which were homicides.

In PA, we suffer more gun deaths than deaths due to automobile accidents.