

Montgomery/Bucks County PA Organizer

Every five hours a Pennsylvanian is lost to gun violence because our legislators fail to enact life-saving legislation. As the Commonwealth's leading gun violence prevention advocacy organization, CeaseFirePA is hiring an organizer to expand our grassroots network, deepen our coalition and hold elected officials accountable in Southeast PA to end this epidemic.

Most Pennsylvanians support life-saving gun safety laws, but too many elected officials continue to ignore demands for action. Our Montgomery/Bucks County organizer will help build the necessary power in the region to enact our Common Agenda and other critical policies.

The Job

The Montgomery/Bucks County PA Organizer will primarily organize the public and engage partners in Montgomery and Bucks Counties. You will:

- Expand a Grassroots Movement: You'll teach supporters how to understand our gun violence crisis and motivate them to use their voices to take part in actions such as lobbying, letter writing, canvassing, and more in the name of saving lives.
- Build strong partnerships and coalitions. You'll network with faith leaders, medical and educational professionals, anti-violence leaders, community activists, and law enforcement to build coalitions of committed partners advocating for common sense gun laws.
- Change the narrative on gun violence prevention. By harnessing the power of storytelling, you'll raise the voices of survivors, gun owners, and public health officials to redefine our movement's message in local media.
- Advocate for policy solutions with decision-makers. You'll lobby those in power by meeting with them and organizing protests, town halls, marches, and other engagement events to push them to be better on the issue of gun violence prevention.
